

Who is This That Comes From Edom?

NEANDER (8 7. 8 7. 8 7)

Thomas Kelly, 1809

Joachim Neander, 1680

1. Who is this that comes from Ed - om, All His rai - ment
2. 'Tis the Sa - vior, now vic - to - rious, Trav'l - ing on - ward
3. Why that blood His rai - ment stain - ing? 'Tis the blood of
4. Might - y Vic - tim, reign for - ev - er, Wear the crown so stained with blood, To the cap - tive speak - ing free - dom, in His might; 'Tis the Sa - vior; oh, how glo - rious ma - ny slain; Of His foes there's none re - main - ing, dear - ly won; Nev - er shall Thy peo - ple, nev - er,

Bring - ing and be - stow - ing good; Glo - rious in the
To His peo - ple is the sight! Sa - tan con - quered
None the con - test to main - tain. Fall'n are they, no Cease to sing what Thou hast done: Thou hast fought Thy garb He wears, Glo - rious in the spoil He bears?

and the grave, Je - sus now is strong to save.
more to rise, All their glo - ry pro - strate lies.
peo - ple's foes, Thou hast healed Thy peo - ple's woes.